SUBJECT to FSVP?

FSVP does NOT apply to you.

You do not need an FSVP with respect to microbiological hazards for that food. Instead, you must verify and document that the food was produced in accordance with 21 CFR part 113. With respect to all matters that are not controlled by part 113, you must have an FSVP.

You are deemed in compliance with most aspects of FSVP, except the requirement for importer identification at entry.

You are subject to modified FSVP requirements for those dietary supplements subject to separate, pre-existing Current Good Manufacturing Practices (CGMPs) requirements for dietary supplements.

You are subject to modified FSVP requirements. An example of modified requirements for certain importers is that they would not have to conduct hazard analyses and would be able to verify their foreign suppliers by obtaining written assurances of compliance.

You are subject to modified FSVP requirements for food from those suppliers.

You are subject to modified FSVP requirements for food from those countries. Includes determining that the supplier is in compliance with U.S. safety regulations or relevant laws in country deemed equivalent.

It is strongly recommended that each Importer conduct a thorough review of FSVP's applicability with respect to their individual circumstances.
